GOVERNMENT DEBT

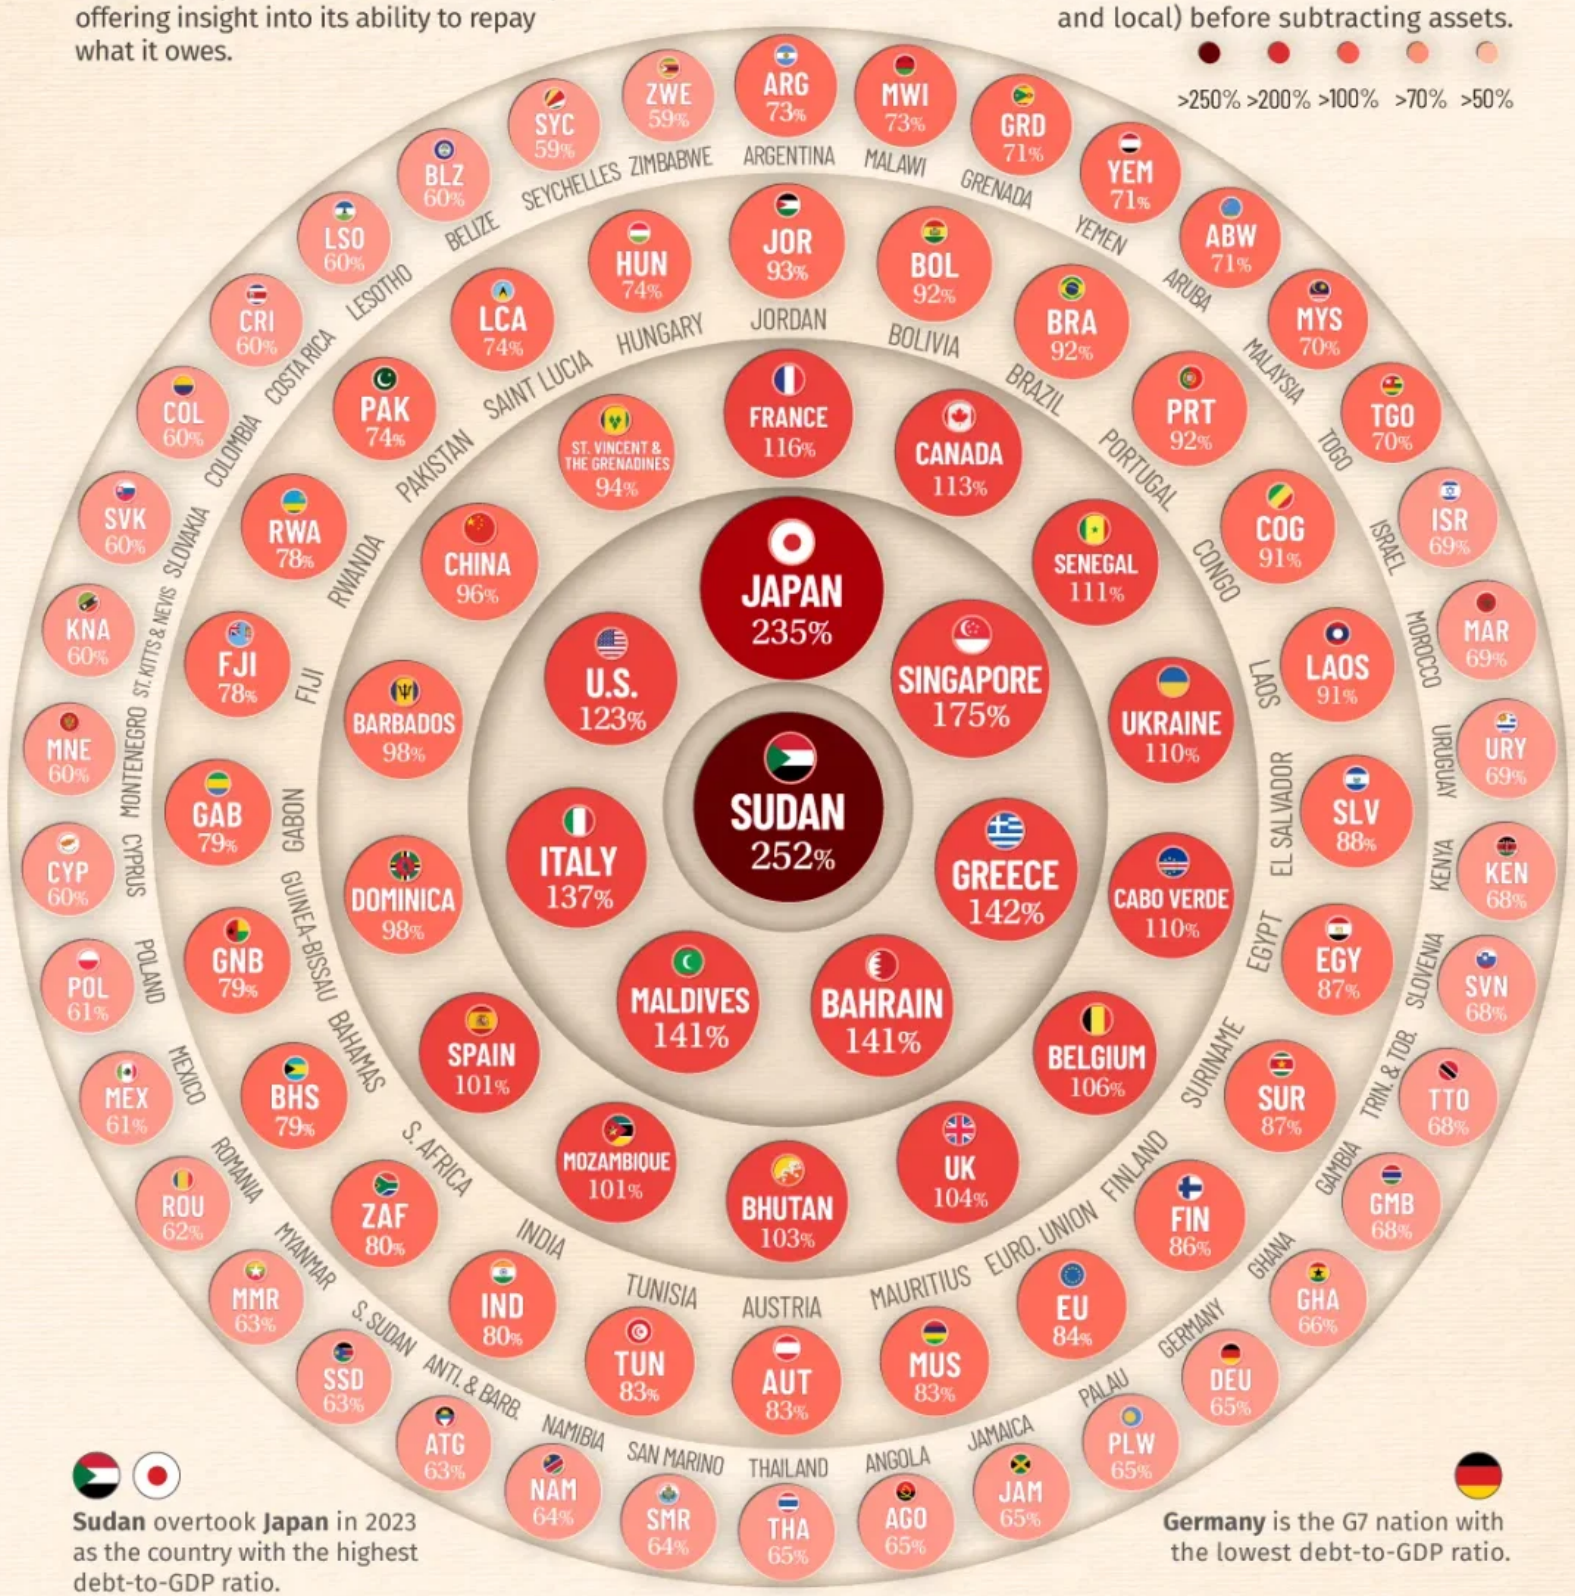

AROUND THE WORLD

GENERAL GOVERNMENT GROSS DEBT (% OF GDP)

The Debt-to-GDP ratio measures a country's debt in comparison to its economic output, offering insight into its ability to repay what it owes.

General government gross debt is the sum of financial liabilities at all levels (central, state, and local) before subtracting assets.

>250% >200% >100% >70% >50%

Sudan overtook Japan in 2023 as the country with the highest debt-to-GDP ratio.

Germany is the G7 nation with the lowest debt-to-GDP ratio.

VISUAL CAPITALIST

SOURCE: IMF World Economic Outlook (April 2025)